Sumika Horiguchi is a Japanese composer, pianist and a talented musician.

She was born in Tokyo in 1991 and has been immersed in music since she was two years old.

Sumika attended the prestigious YAMAHA music school from a very early age, laying the ground for a successful future career as a professional composer.

She has always been attracted to music and when she was in primary school, she knew she wanted to become a famous composer as she experienced the joy and the drama of musical instruments, notes and scores.

As she grew up, her pure desire to become a composer became stronger and stronger as she graduated from the department of music composition of the Kunitachi College of Music.

She studied composition under Yukio Kikuchi, Kazuki Kuriyama, and Kazunori Maruyama.

She learned jazz on the piano during her attendance at school and performed many concerts.

She has also been an essential part in the Dimension Cruise since 2017.
